

CONNECT WITH OTHERS

The bows remind us of connection with God and connection with others.

Being connected is a gift, but it takes planning and some times a lot of work. On each bow, put the name of a person that you would like to connect with. In the gift, draw or write your connection idea. Put a check mark on the gift tag when you complete your idea.

Connection ideas:

