

Jesus reminds us to look at the birds and remember that God takes care of them and that He loves you even more than the birds. Look at all of the different birds. Today as you colour, say 'Thank You' to God for the way that He brings peace to our hearts in anxious times.

